

LISA SALDAÑA

Lisa Saldaña is a Licensed Mental Health Counselor and a Registered Play Therapist-Supervisor in Miami, Florida. Lisa has been teaching play therapy and providing play therapy training and supervision since 1993. She is the Director of In-service Training at The Institute for Child and Family Health, Inc. and is a past president of both the Florida Association for Play Therapy and the national Association for Play Therapy (www.a4pt.org).

Our Mission:

The Institute for Child and Family Health is committed to empowering the children, youth, and families of our community by providing services that enhance their emotional, physical, and educational well-being.

Our Vision

The Institute for Child & Family Health is improving the communities we serve by providing outstanding primary and behavioral health services to all those who seek care. We accomplish this by attracting professionals and volunteers who are passionate about what they do, and who strive to better our community through a multidisciplinary health care approach that is both affordable and responsive to individual needs.
